Participant failed to disclose relevant information that would affect the decision to accept or reject the risk, and on the terms to be applied.

- d) Cooling-off Period should the Participant find that the Certificate does not meet their needs, the Participant may return it within fourteen (14) days after the commencement date of certificate. In such event, provided no claim has been made during the current Certificate year, the Participant may entitle for full refund of the contribution paid without profit less medical expenses incurred by the company.
- e) Waiting Period means the period of thirty (30) days from commencement date of the Certificate / endorsement. No benefit due to Illness occurring during this period will be payable. Any renewal done after thirty (30) days of expiry will be subject to a fresh Waiting Period.
- f) It is important for Participant to receive receipts and keep them as proof of payment of Takaful Contributions.
- g) The Participant may elect to partial withdraw his/her balances in Participant's Accounts provided that the Certificate has been effective for two (2) or more years since commencement date of the Certificate and there is no lapse payment. In the event of lapse payment, the Participant shall agree to pay the lapse payment first. For each Takaful Certificate, only five (5) withdrawal periods are allowed during the Takaful Certificate period where the minimum period between each withdrawal is two (2) years. The maximum eligible amount of withdrawal will be subject to number of effective years of the Certificate. The partial withdrawal will reduce the surrender and maturity value of the Certificate.
- h) Written notice of an occurrence upon which a claim under this Certificate may be based must be given to the Company within thirty (30) days of such occurrence.

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the Takaful Certificate and Certificate Wording for the terms and conditions under this Takaful Certificate.
